

Testimonials:

"I thought I knew a lot about safety and how to be safe, but this book gave me SO MUCH new and very useful information! Fantastic! I'll be recommending it to everyone I know" Kim Sith (Realtor)

"With 20 years of training real estate agents, I feel this book is way over due and very well written. I think you touched on all the points" - Fred Schilffarth (Realtor Trainer)

"I am very impressed with your book. I think it is great!! You seem to have covered everything! I wish I could have had access to this when I started my visits" - Mary Rita Jordan (Home Health Nurse)

"Obviously you have put a lot of love -- and expertise -- into this book. It contains great information!" Barbara Hemphill (Professional Organizer and creator of Taming the Paper Tiger)

"I have found it really useful to heighten my awareness and increase my ability to read people. I'm not taking anything for granted anymore and am more alert in the homes I visit. Thanks for the useful advice." S. Van Wert ED. (Early Intervention Service Provider)

"Chris,

Thank you so much for lending your time and expertise to our school social work program. Your presentation was informative, interesting and planned with great care. Your content would have wide appeal to social workers in many different fields. Thanks so much and it was great to meet you. Thanks for going with the flow today.

Betsy

Elizabeth Tracy, Ph.D."

Associate Professor\Mandel School of Applied Social Sciences
Case Western Reserve University

Would you like your review to appear here? Simply email me your comments along with a note that gives me permission to use your comments in my advertising.

For excerpts and more information about the book and presentations by the author, visit:

www.SafeHomeVisits.com

To order your copy of this book on-line: Please visit the publisher at: www.trafford.com and put the book title or author's name in the search box

219 pages - quality paperback (soft cover)

ISBN 141209292-2

If you would like Chris to speak to your group, contact her at SafeHomeVisits@hotmail.com